

Bay Area UASI Risk Management Program

January 2019

Each year the Bay Area UASI Risk Management Program includes data input, validation, assessments, and reporting to support decision-making and guide grant spending. A risk and capability-based methodology to allocate UASI funds is required by the Department of Homeland Security and is mandated in the Bay Area UASI Approval Authority Bylaws.

This year, there are three steps to our risk management process:

1. Risk Management Kick-Off Meeting

WHO: All Bay Area UASI regional and subject matter experts involved in risk management

WHAT: The Bay Area UASI Management Team provides an overview of the risk management process for the grant year, the new requirements for the Threat and Hazard Identification and Risk Assessment (THIRA) and Stakeholder Preparedness Review (SPR); the California Common Operating Picture (Cal COP) for Threat Awareness; as well as Protected Critical Infrastructure Information (PCII) certification requirements.

WHEN: February 14, 2019, 10:00 am – 11:00 am

WHERE: WebEx with the option to attend in person at the Bay Area UASI Office, 711 Van Ness Ave, Ste. 420, San Francisco, CA 94102

2. Asset Updates and Validation

WHO: OA and NCIRC subject matter experts who are PCII trained and certified Cal COP users.

WHAT: Subject matter experts review and update asset data based on identified gaps in information in Cal COP. The NCRIC reviews and validates the information and submits it to the PCII office for certification as needed.

WHEN: January 11, 2019 – May 10, 2019

WHERE: In Cal COP

Haystax will offer training for Cal COP users on March 14th covering assets and general user training.

3. THIRA / SPR Workshop

WHO: Regional subject matter experts for the Prevention, Protection, and Mitigation Core Capability Mission Areas.

WHAT: Forum to collect input on the THIRA / SPR standardized impacts, targets, and capability assessment information. The Bay Area UASI Threat and Hazard Identification and Risk Assessment (THIRA) is required each year by DHS and will be presented to the Approval Authority in November 2019.

WHEN: April 17, 2019, 9:00 am - Noon

WHERE: Alameda County Sheriff's Office OES, 4985 Broder Blvd, Dublin CA 94568
