

Bay Area UASI

RCPGP

Equitable Community Resilience Projects Updates

Christophe Arnold, Regional Project Manager

Approval Authority Meeting

Agenda Item 06

June 13, 2024

Appendix A

Equitable Community Resilience

RCPGP FY22 Phase 1

October 1st, 2023 – September 30th, 2025.
$1,309,398.00

Disadvantaged Communities

RCPGP FY23 Phase 2

October 1st, 2025 – September 30th, 2027.
$1,500,000.00

Equity & Climate Resilience

Local Planning
Regional Planning
Training & Exercise

Equitable Community Resilience

Highlights: RCPGP FY22 (Phase 1)

Local Roadmaps to Community Resilience

Regional Resilience Tool & Vulnerability Report

Tract 06053010606

Social Vulnerability Assessment (06053010606)

According to the American Community Survey, 6,960 people live in this area.

Socioeconomic Status:

- Percentage of the Population Below 150% Poverty: 30.90%
- Median Income: $84,688
- Percentage of the Population Unemployed: 2.90%
- Percentage of Housing Cost Burdened Units: 40.70%
- Percentage of the Population 25+ Without a High School Diploma: 40.50%
- Percentage of the Population 25+ Without Insurance: 9.30%

Household Characteristics:
An estimated 2,621 are under the age of 18 or 65+, approximately 42.1% This

National Risk Index (06053010606)

Expected Annual Loss: Very High

Top Ten Hazards

Hazard	Risk Score	Risk Index Rating
Drought	99.87	Very High
Earthquake	99.83	Very High
Riverine Flooding	99.58	Very High
Wildfire	97.59	Relatively High
Heat Wave	80.93	Relatively High

Climate and Economic Justice Screening Tool

This tract is identified as disadvantaged. It has 1 category that meet the criteria.

Workforce development

Equitable Community Resilience

Highlights: RCPGP FY23 (Phase 2)

Community-led Preparedness Initiatives

Regional Study
Effective Community Outreach

Community Coordination Platform

Annual regionwide full-scale & functional exercise

For questions contact:

Christophe Arnold
Regional Project Manager
Christophe.Arnold@sfgov.org
415.272.6451

Thank you.

